★ Letter from Our Guild President ★

What a great way to start the Spring! I'm looking forward to Global Quilt Connection's quarterly "Virtual Sampler Platter" March 19–20. It was fun and I learned a lot at the last one! Because San Francisco Quilters Guild has registered as a guild, all members can watch for free. You don't even have to register. See the article in this newsletter for more information. ~Peggy

★ Show Off Your Skills ★

submitted by Alex Byrne & Claudia Shearer

Everyone reading this article has skills we need to get the 2023 show organized. Never helped organize a quilt show before? No problem! Are you good at talking to people? You could help wrangle the volunteers or the vendors. Are you more of a behind-the-scenes person? You could be just what we need for getting the quilts labelled. Are you a natural-born planner? We could use your talents in laying out the show, organizing quilt submissions, or assisting with the show take-down. Interested in finding out more? Email Alex at lixieyarnover@gmail.com.

Inspired by Art (Virtual) Workshop with

David Owens Hastings

On Saturday, April 16, 10 A.M.–4 P.M.; fee $65; on zoom. Starting with a favorite work of art, develop your own unique modern quilt design. Work with David to explore the many ways you can take inspiration from it to develop your own quilt block or full quilt design. We will break down the image to its most basic elements, create a rough drawing, then start building a test block using improv techniques. Signups are now open through www.sfquiltersguild.org/event/inspired-by-art-workshop-with-david-owen-hastings/.
